Based on the best-selling book series by Bernard Waber, Lyle, Lyle, Crocodile, starring Academy Award® winner Javier Bardem (2007, Best Supporting Actor, No Country for Old Men), Constance Wu and Shawn Mendes, is a live-action/CGI musical comedy that brings this beloved character to a new, global audience.

When the Primm family moves to New York City, their young son Josh struggles to adapt to his new school and new friends. All of that changes when he discovers Lyle - a singing crocodile who loves baths, caviar and great music-living in the attic of his new home. The two become fast friends, but when Lyle's existence is threatened by evil neighbor Mr. Grumps, the Primms must band together with Lyle's charismatic owner, Hector P. Valenti, to show the world that family can come from the most unexpected places and there's nothing wrong with a big singing crocodile with an even bigger personality.

MAKE YOUR OWN LYLE!

All you need is a paper lunch bag (5” wide), some art supplies and your imagination to make your very own Lyle the crocodile!

Kids, get your parent’s permission or supervision!

You can do this project with any crafting supplies you have at home, including:

- Markers / Crayons for coloring -

- Safety Scissors -

- Red, Green & Yellow Construction Paper -

- Glue Stick -

1. Cut out or color a large green oval for Lyle’s body and a slightly smaller, yellow oval for his belly.

2. Cut out Lyle’s head, arms, legs and tail.

3. Turn your paper bag upside down so the bottom is at the top. Glue Lyle’s head to the flap.

4. On the main part of the bag, glue down Lyle’s tail, then green body and yellow belly. Then add his arms and legs.

5. Finish your creation off by coloring or cutting out 3 pieces of red paper (1 long, 2 short) to make his scarf!
